

16 and 17 Year Old: Age Waiver Application for High School Equivalency (HSEC) Testing

Instructions:

Requirements for Credential Testing:

The minimum HSEC testing age in Wyoming is 18 years old. You may not test if you are currently enrolled in school or have received an accredited high school diploma. If you are 16 or 17 you may request an age waiver for testing. To be considered, you will spend a minimum of 12 hours working with an approved Adult Education (AE) center preparing to submit your Age Waiver Application including verification that you are ready to test. During the 12 hours, you will be required to take at least one TABE test, complete required paperwork, and take an official practice test for each section of the High School Equivalency Examination. All applications must be approved by the state office prior to testing. Applicants for virtual testing must earn a passing score on all official practice tests in order to receive approval on the age waiver application.

Age Requirement: You are requesting special permission to participate in HSEC testing. Your application will only be considered if you meet at least one of the following criteria:

1. The school district withdrawal verification is signed by the high school principal and/or designated high school counselor stating they are in agreement that the HSEC program is your best option and they describe all other options attempted to
